About me

I am a highly experienced maritime professional with a university education and a proven track record as a Captain. My expertise lies in leadership, navigation, and crisis management, allowing me to effectively manage crew and ensure safe and efficient voyages. With a strong foundation in maritime regulations, I excel in vessel handling and crisis management, ensuring compliance with ISM/ISPS/MLC 2006 standards. My hands-on experience with new builds and shipyard operations complements my skills in voyage planning and safety procedures, making me a versatile and reliable leader at sea. I m confident, hard worker and easy to communicate. I am a father of two children, a lover of classical music and a sailing enthusiast. I do not have any disability or permanent illness.

Education

University 1999 - 2003
Hacettepe University State Conservatory Piano Main Art, Ankara/Turkiye
I spent my entire childhood and youth devoting myself to playing the piano. I attended art history, solfeggio, piano and harmony lessons with very valuable instructors on classical music. In my time outside of sailing, I give piano, solfeggio, harmony, art history and conservatory preparation courses to children. My favorite composers are Chopin, Liszt, Tchaikovsky, Beethoven, Mozart and Schubert.
